Dear Hiring Committee,

I'm writing to inquire about any potential opportunities at your organization. I am proud of the work I have achieved in my current position, but I'm eager to grow my skills and take on new challenges in a dynamic and creative environment. I am particularly excited about the prospect of contributing to projects that align with my passions and expertise in content creation, design, and marketing.

Currently, I work remotely as a Graphic Design Lead & Marketing Specialist for a digital marketing agency, where I have developed the ability to collaborate effectively with teams and clients from a distance.

In my current role, I create landing pages, sales funnels, digital graphics, video content, and other creative assets for lead generation. I am familiar with industry-specific marketing strategies and have experience creating web content with consistent design principles. My role has expanded to include SEO, CRM automations, and Google Ads management, which led to my dual title of "Marketing Specialist" and "Graphic Design Lead."

My experience working remotely has allowed me to enhance my productivity and has equipped me to handle multiple complex projects efficiently. I am confident that the skills I've gained would be valuable to any team I join, and I am enthusiastic about the possibility of contributing to new projects in an industry I am passionate about.

Thank you for considering my inquiry. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to your team.

Sincerely,

Sara Miller
